

Craig Carleton

Controller
LATTER & BLUM Companies

Craig Carleton graduated from the University of New Orleans with a BS degree in Accounting. He has an enrolled agent license issued by the Internal Revenue Service and holds a Louisiana Real Estate Broker's license.

Prior to joining LATTER & BLUM Craig gained experience in public and private accounting, individual, corporate, and partnership taxation, business consulting, and commercial real estate construction.

Craig worked as chief accountant for LATTER & BLUM Property Management, Inc. in the summer of 1989. After only a year and a half he was asked to be the controller for LATTER & BLUM Companies. His chief duties include management and maintenance of the accounting systems of LATTER & BLUM and all affiliated companies and preparation of Corporate and Partnership Tax Returns.

Other duties include management reporting, budgeting, IBM AS400 system maintenance, and quality control of property sales.
