

Claudia S. d'Aquin

LATTER & BLUM/CJ BROWN
Director of Human Resources

Claudia joined the real estate profession in 1968 when she went to work for a small brokerage firm in Metairie, Louisiana. After having two daughters and being involved in their schools as a room mother, she got back into real estate in 1978. She joined Coldwell Banker in their New Orleans Corporate office. She was promoted to the position of office manager until she left Coldwell Banker in 1988.

In 1988 Claudia joined LATTER & BLUM in the Residential Division as the Director of Residential Administration. She was in charge of the sales processing activities and the third party, relocation billing, and the accounting department. During 1993 she was promoted to Director of Human Resources for LATTER & BLUM and its affiliate companies. In this position Claudia is responsible for the processing of the payroll for three of the companies, all employee benefits including health, life and dental insurance. Other areas covered by the Director are tax payments, REO\Third Party accounting functions, office services, sales processing, communications systems, corporate receptionist and file room.

Claudia serves as Assistant Plan Administrator for the LATTER & BLUM\C.J. BROWN 401K plan. She is also Chairwoman of the LATTER & BLUM \CJ BROWN scholarship program. She ran the United Way campaign for LATTER & BLUM for many years. Under her direction of the campaign the contributions far exceeded expectations. Claudia is the link that employees can go to for personnel related programs and any concerns they may have.