Hartwig Moss III

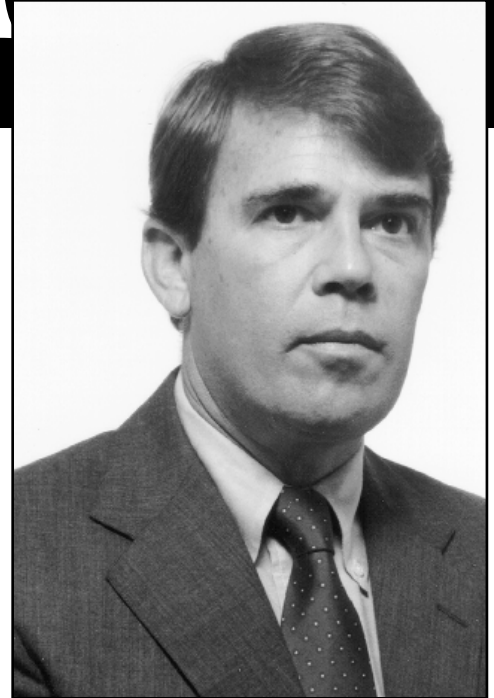

Branch Manager
Lakefront and Historic Offices

Al Palumbo entered the real estate industry in 1977 as an agent for LATTER & BLUM and in March 1984 was appointed Manager of the Historic Districts office. In 1990, Al's responsibility was extended to include the Lakefront office. Prior to joining LATTER & BLUM, Al was a Lieutenant in the military.

Al is strongly involved with the Vieux Carre Property Owners Association and the Marigny Neighborhood Association as well as the National Association of Realtors, the Louisiana Realtors Association and the New Orleans Metropolitan Association of Realtors. Having received the GRI, CRS and CRB designations, Al is now working on his CCIM designation.

The Historic Districts Office specializes in historic properties, investment properties, bed and breakfast and other small commercial ventures. The Lakefront office has varied price ranges from small cottages to luxury homes.

Al believes in continually furnishing agents with all the latest tools and technology available and in continually recruiting new agents in order to upgrade the performance and professionalism of the office.

*Al is single and originally a native of Baton Rouge.
For relaxation, Al enjoys jazz, renovation of historic properties and gardening.*
